

Beth Staros is a passionate educator with roots in Manchester, England, who embarked on a life-changing journey to Naples, FL, in 2003. She is an accomplished educator who pursued her passion for education by earning a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Florida Gulf Coast University in 2011. She furthered her academic journey and expertise by obtaining a Master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the American College of Education in 2021.

For thirteen years, Beth has dedicated herself to the teaching profession, with ten of those years spent with FORZA Education Management. Her commitment and excellence in teaching were recognized on numerous occasions, earning her the prestigious title of Teacher of the Year twice during her career, as well as Support Staff of the Year. In 2023, she achieved the remarkable accomplishment of being awarded FORZA Teacher of the Year, a testament to her unwavering dedication and impact in the educational community.

In her precious moments of spare time, Beth finds joy in cherishing quality moments with her husband, Will, and their two beloved daughters, Ella and Ava. The Staros family shares a love for adventure and exploration as they embark on exciting travels together, creating cherished memories along the way. Their shared passion for visiting Disney brings them to the enchanting world of magic and imagination, making their experiences even more unforgettable.

Beth is proud to work for FORZA Education Management and is committed to the organization's mission and values.
