

Jenna began her career with Hillsborough County Public Schools 36 years ago. Her first role with the district was as an ESE teacher, and she transitioned into the Psychological Services Department as an Educational Diagnostician. She concluded her educational career with 20 years as the Director of Charter Schools for Hillsborough County Public Schools, assisting and supporting all charter schools in Hillsborough County.

Jenna has been an active member of the Florida Association of Charter School Authorizers (FACSA) since its inception, served on the board of directors as a board member and vice president, and was president for 12 years. She also served on the Charter School Review Panel and the Florida Charter Schools Appeals Commission. She has a wealth of knowledge and is a genuine true educational leader with vision, passion, and energy.

Her focus is, and always will be, children and keeping them first in all aspects of her life, which aligns with FORZA's focus and mission. We are honored to have her as part of the FORZA Family!
